

DAY ONE

- Start the day by joining Bridge Climb to see Sydney from its most iconic vantage point, atop the Sydney Harbour Bridge.
- Unwind after the climb and enjoy a lavish seafood buffet lunch as you cruise Sydney Harbour with Majestic Cruises.
- Return to The Rocks and discover the sandstone lanes and colourful history of Sydney's oldest neighbourhood with The Rocks Walking Tours.
- Taste New South Wales' finest boutique wines and have them matched to your meal when you visit Wine Odyssey for dinner.
- Following dinner, give into temptation and try the delectable desserts on offer at the Guylian Café.

DAY TWO

- See spectacular views of the sweeping coastline as you start the day with the Bondi to Bronte Coast Walk. Afterwards, stop for breakfast at Speedo's Café.
- Take a stroll to Aquabumps Gallery to see Bondi through the eyes of a surf photographer.
- Just around the corner you can shop for a cossie and browse Bondi's eclectic shopping scene. Don't miss Tuchuzu, Shona Joy and the Milk Bar Boutique.
- It's time for lunch as you make your way to Campbell Parade where you'll find Ravesis. Grab a table on the deck overlooking Australia's most famous beach.
- Spend the afternoon learning how to ride the waves of Bondi Beach during a lesson with Lets Go Surfing.
- After a physical day at Bondi Beach, reward yourself with a relaxing dinner at Rockpool Bar and Grill, Neil Perry's stylish new steakhouse.

DAY THREE

- Get your morning coffee fix at Single Origin Roasters in Surry Hills - then it's time for some retail therapy. Join Urban Walkabout Tours on their "Design Lovers" walking tour, where you'll discover outstanding jewellery designers, homewares, furniture boutiques and concept stores in Surry Hills.
- Travel to near-by Waterloo to discover some of Sydney's best-kept arts and dining secrets. The menu changes daily at Dank Street Depot where you'll dine on the freshest produce during lunch.
- See contemporary Australian and international art as you explore the nine galleries housed at 2 Danks Street.
- Feeling peckish? Wander a few doors down to pick up some fresh fruit from Fratelli Fresh.
- Cap off your holiday with a performance at Sydney Opera House.
